This letter is to inform you that I am appointing a subcommittee of the Committee on Agriculture to investigate what additional steps, if any, are necessary to control swine pseudorabies.

The seriousness of this disease was initially recognized by the Legislature's enactment of 1983 Wisconsin Act 132, which established a pseudorabies surveillance, control and indemnification program. However, it is contended that there are additional steps which the state can take to control this disease. Accordingly, the subcommittee is charged with reviewing

DOUGLAS La FOLLETTE
